COMMON ORDER

13.02.2011

Present: Company prosecutor Ms. Kusum Yadav with AR of complainant.

HC Vinod Kumar, Process Server is also present.

Accused no. 3 M.S. Prasad is already PO vide order dtd. 27.02.06.

Process u/s 82 Cr. PC has already been executed against accused Anil Kumar Jain. Process Server examined and discharged. I have perused the statement of process server. This court is satisfied with his statement that the accused is not traceable. Hence accused Anil Kumar Jain is hereby declared P.O.

Perusal of the records reveals that the accused are not traceable now, despite repeated processes sent from the court. The complainant submits that the complainant is not in possession of any other address of the accused as of now. The present case pertains to summons triable offence u/s 159/220 of the Companies Act only which is punishable with fine only. In such summons triable offence there is no point in keeping such files, as the present one, pending since despite repeated processes the accused persons are not served and it unnecessarily consumes a lot of precious time of the court and also it occupies the cause list of the court without any fruitful results. In this court there are thousand of such matters pending, filed by the Registrar of Companies, in which for years together the accused could not be served. They have vanished from the given addresses. In such circumstances, it would be appropriate that the matter be adjourned sine-die and the files be preserved and in case the complainant is able to lay its hands on of any fresh or new address of any of the accused, the complainant may get the file revived so that some fruitful proceedings can be conducted. Other wise adjourning such matters unnecessarily, more particularly when the processes are not being served, would only consume precious time of the court. It is ordered that file be consigned to the Record Room, being adjourned sine-die, and file is ordered to be preserved in the Record Room so that it can be revived, if required.
